

MG II #2 PHOTOGRAPHIC ILLUSTRATIONS:

Fig. 1: Rizal Heritage Center

Fig. 2: Group picture, Chicago

Fig. 3: Signature Room

Fig.4: Lady C. Estacio

Fig. 5: Newberry Library

Fig. 6: Rizal Bust (NL)

Fig. 7: Sky View from the Signature Room

Fig. 8: Brunch at Drury Inn

Fig. 9: Lunch, Little Quiapo

Fig. 10: Mokor Meeting

Fig. 11: Tejada's Party

Fig. 12: Scuba Diving

Fig. 13: Tek-wan-do Awards

Fig. 14: Sir Joe's Hunting

Fig. 15: Sir Stephen's Farm/Lake

Fig. 16: Sir Les in London

DESCRIPTIONS OF PHOTOS:

Fig. 1: Rizal Heritage Center on Irving Street (Jose P. Rizal St.), Chicago. Note the absence of the Rizal Bust on the concrete pedestal. The chapter visitation and lecture "A Call To Pride and Dignity" by Area Commander Dr. Castro was done in this facility.

Fig. 2: Group picture taken on September 11, 2015 at the center during the meeting, l-r, Sirs Anong Santos, Eli Faypon, Juan Castro, Lady Carmen Estacio holding the Rizal Figure trophy given for Mokor Rizaliana Woman of the Year 2015 and other ladies and guests.

Fig. 3: Sir Eli Faypon taken in the Signature Room, 95th Floor, John Hancock's Building. Sir Juan and Lady Aida were treated to lunch in this prestigious restaurant in downtown Chicago on Michigan Avenue, September 11, 2015.

Fig. 4: Lady Carmen holding the Rizal Trophy gave a remark on receiving the award.

Fig. 5: Sir Eli in front of the entrance of the Newberry Library, where some original Rizal's artifacts are stored. Sir Juan got a tour and a library card for future visits.

Fig. 6: A large Rizal Bust exhibited on the third floor of the Newberry Library.

Fig. 7: A sky view of the downtown City of Chicago taken on a clear day, September 11, 2015, Thursday from the Signature Room on the 95th floor of the John Hancock Building on Michigan Avenue.

Fig. 8: Sir Eli and Lady Aida taking brunch at the Drury Lane Theater and Conference Center in Oakbrook Terrace, Illinois on Sunday, September 13, 2015. Sir Juan took the picture, Another great treat of Sir Eli to his guests.

Fig. 9: Lunch at Little Quiapo, Chicago on Saturday, September 12, 2015 given by the Ladies for Rizal, Regional Council. Lady Carmen headed the group.

Fig. 10: Monthly Meeting of Mokor St. Louis Chapter on Sunday, 2-4 PM, September 20, 2015 at Church of Christ basement conference room. This was the first event at this facility. Shown l-r, 1st row, Sir Al Katzenberger, Lady Aida Casto and Lady Virgie Abinoja; 2nd row, Sirs Roger Schmidt, Conrad Abinoja, Jess Celis, Alex Datuin and guest Rodney Abinoja; 3rd row, Sir Joel Anderson, host Rich Herzig and Dr. Josh Henk, Sir Steve Erdmann. Sir Juan took the photo.

Fig. 11: Dr. Frank Tejada's Family with children and grandchildren taken at the Collinsville Convention Center, Illinois on August 2, 2015, Sunday, 2-6 PM to celebrate Frank's eighty fifth (85) birthday in Hawaii attire. In this occasion, Dr. Juan Castro presented the Rizal trophy for being the Rizaliana Man of the Year 2015 recipient in a ceremony done on June 13, 2015, Saturday to celebrate Dr. Rizal's natal day at the Missouri Athletic Club West. The trophy came late from the KOR HQ, Manila, Philippines.

Fig. 12: Scuba diving in Florida by a trio of Lady Gina Castro-Scoll, Sir Mark Sholl and son, Soli. They are considered master scuba divers. Lady Gina used to be a master instructor.

Fig. 13: Tak-wen-do awardees, Soli on left holding a tall trophy for a black belt at age 10.

Fig. 14: Sir Joe Castro sitting on right beside a recently bagged pronghorn antelope. Also in picture is his high powered rifle and heavy duty truck.

Fig. 15: Sir Stephen's Farm and Lake in Augusta, Missouri taken after the July 2015 monthly meeting. In fifteen minutes with an artificial lure, Sir Juan took in three perch (bluegills) the size of your hand and three bass. Sir Juan claimed that these were the biggest bluegills he ever caught.

Fig. 16: Sir Les Jenkins photo taken in London during his three months of R&R, He has rental properties in Devon. He was also checking some properties to purchase.